HALEY CRICK

NICKNAME: Haley-Bailey FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE: Romans 10:1

FAVORITE SONG: "Until Then"

PLANS AFTER GRADUATION: I am hoping to either go to a college or a trade school - whichever one will be best for me. I want to do something that involves both teaching and medicine (or medical health). If the Lord will help me.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT: To my fellow classmates, I give you all a headache. To Brandy, a few pieces of candy. To all the Sophmores (who wail at all the quizzes/tests), I wish you the very best. You will need it for all the greensticks below you. Farewell, Brother Woods! I give to you my numberless books that I won't need any more. Oh, what horror! I just realized that I'm running out of time. It is almost lunch; Bigen, don't lose hope. I wish I could give you so many right answers that you've guessed wrong, but I can't. The year has almost ended. The preaching will be missed very much by me. Since I am going away, I might not need say that I might come and visit during lunch. It's just a thought; I might not be able to drive because of the tight hugs on my sides. Children might be inclined to miss me, but I think not. I'm too cheerful to be missed that much :).

CASSIBY FRIK

for my life - whatever that may be.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMEN7: I, Cassidy Frix, being of a sound mind after completing 12 years of school, 5 of which at P.C.S., do leave the following things to the following people. To Emily, Brandy, and Georgia Lynn, I leave all the many memories we have made over the years - may there be many more to come! To Marshall, I leave my great Algebra skills - Lord knows you could use them;) (jk). To Trevor, I leave my hymn book that you love so much. To my voileyball teammates, I leave you my thanks for your hard work and making my last year so great by having a winning season! PROUD TO BE AN EAGLE!!! To my teachers, Mr. Woods, Bro. Charles, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Carver, I leave you my many thanks for your help and support over the years. Thank you for the great examples you have been as well. To all the younger grades, I leave my determination (hang in there and enjoy your years in school; they'll fly by faster than you realize) and friendliness (those who are different usually turn out to be your best friends if you give them a chance - (Prov. 18:24) be a friend to everyone). To my fellow seniors . . . WE DID IT!!! All our long hours of studying and hard work has finally paid off. I wish you all the best and know y'all have great things in store for you. Thanks for the memories! :) (Phillipians 1:2-6)

To all the teachers and staff of PCS, I would like to say THANK YOU! I appreciate all the hard work and dedication into making Philadelphia the great school it is today. To Bro. Tim McCulley, I say thank you for following the leadership of the Lord and establishing this great school. Also, for the many years of coaching and the Christian example to follow through the years. To Bro. John Dorsey, I say thank you for all the great memories shared on bus rides to practice while Bro. Tim was gone. HAHA! To Mr. Daniel Woods, I would like to say thank you so much for the many talks we have had and for never giving up on me and most importantly putting up with me! To Mrs. Lena Carver, Mrs. Deborah Thomas and Bro. Charles, I would like to also say thank you for putting up with me over the years, it has been a blessing to have known you all. To Jeremy McGaha, my dear friend, I leave you the memories shared that will last a lifetime, and "POW" and yes, I said "POW"! To Cassidy Frix, I have almost truly known you my whole life and leave you the many smiles and laughs we have shared. To Haley Crick, I leave you all my wrong answers while guessing over the years. To all of ninth and tenth graders, I wanted to leave you with some knowledge to help you through school, but I got nothing! HAHA - sorry. To Andrew, Lake, Bryson, Ethan, Zach, Marshall and Trevor, I leave my basketball and dunking skills in the hope that next years basketball team will go undefeated. Always remember: keep your head up and remember who you represent!
